George Galanakis (BA, MSc/OR, ELA/ESLog)

IT & Supply Chain Senior Consultant

George Galanakis has an M.Sc. from the University of Warwick in Management and Operational Research.

George is specialized in management consulting services with a focus on Business Analysis, Technology & ICT Systems, Strategic Planning, 3PL Business Development, Supply Chain Project Management, GAMP®5 IT Validation, Asset Management and Distribution Planning.

Previous to this role he worked in the UAE, for IT company in SAP Business Development, as MENA Regional Director. In this role, he managed and provided start-up of new business, client relationship management and new business acquisition.

George was previously a partner at ECI Management Consultants where he provided IT and management consulting services for QAD Software to multinational Fortune 100 and Fortune 250 companies in Greece and Cyprus.

Key achievements in this role included deploying, managing and maintaining ERP, WMS and CRM systems.